

Notes for Interim Chief Bell – 17 Feb 2022 – 9:15 am

- Phone call with T. Ferguson, C. Pardy, M. Duheme and C. Harkins
- Update for Direction
- Pardy – plan compressed
- Move it along
- Challenging staffing, critical mission, 20 buses being made available
- Found convoy outside of Kingston – able to intercept
- Emergency orders aren't helping
- Followed, tracking at Embrun – mad scramble – Carson cannot allow masses to inter city
- PLT messaging done
- IC Team meeting now – mobilize control access at noon
- Hard facts on what we have, ensure every resource is
- Get controlled access zone locked down
- PLT not comfortable
- Ramping up, more aggressive
- Told to keep kids in sight
- Plan in place to address – can't go an and say can call CAS – clear line of communication – OPS – us – team
- Planning in crisis mode
- Need to support plan but need to be on same page what it is and how going forward
- Time – pause (not too long) so IC's and UC that is plan's being executive briefing briefed
- POU assets confirmed
- Not sure if here or when
- Execution contingent on POU (14 sections)
- Watching over OPS members – need confidence and support that this plan is okay
- Bernier's presentation – 3 phase – need a bit more details
- Flogging at noon
- Bradshaw challenges getting big machinery, buses, etc.
- Bell – like plan locking City – 12:00 today
- Once locked down, does this buy a bit of time to build plan 100%
- Pardy – not coming in
- Buy some time – could have flare up points
- Psychology and advice – people will want out of dodge
- Bell – how comfortable are you with the plan
- Pardy – confident, have had changeover – everyone needs to be as comfortable going forward – propose meet with IC's in separate meeting
- Want them focused on ball
- If they have confidence need to have plan finished
- 72 hours cycle to shut down
- Comms – Bill Dixon – looking to something this afternoon to message lock down
- Pardy - benefit to it – once perimeter established
- Bell – has to happen – message exactly what happening
- Action immediately
- Bradshaw – make it very direct – needs to be clear
- Pardy – agree, once lock down can't stop

- Not welcome
- Legal – out
- Use works
- Bradshaw – going to public as well
- Pardy – IC's and POU – need more detailed briefing, can arrange
- Don't worry about lockdown portion
- Duheme – wants more detailed – has to be able to answer to Commissioner
- Bradshaw – matrix of decision making – Use of Force, Retract
- Bell – agree with Mike – ½ briefing
- Pardy – need 10 minutes and will set firm time – ensure right people are there
- Plan, media, what setting up/locking down
- Bradshaw – if protestors want to leave, they can set up elsewhere
- Bell – ½ hour briefing
- 10:30 confirmed

On way to NOC – Bell called Fleury and McKenney – advised both that S/Sgt. Steve Boucher will be there contact – will work with them both

- Advised Steinbachs that S/Sgt. Boucher will be the contact
- Steinbachs wanted to brief them (Board) – Bell said no
- Need to get a hold of Boucher
- In camera briefing at 1:00 pm – John and Christiane – in camera briefing
- Kathy to Bell – bring up schools

10:46 at NOC

- Carson – lead briefing for Friday morning
- Pardy/Ferguson/Bradshaw/Duheme and Hawkins
- Briefing at level so folks names on it, well
